Dressage Clinic Featuring Jenifer Klemm

February 28, 2010

Learn from the best in the first of a series of unique multi-discipline clinics at CARD as a rider or auditor. CARD welcomes the equestrian community to our beautiful facility with heated arena to benefit from the expertise of these high level clinicians. Update your coaching hours or get a head start on Spring goals with your horse. CARD is grateful to each of the clinicians who donate their time and skills. All proceeds from clinics go to benefit our therapeutic riding program.

About Jenifer Klemm...

Jenifer Klemm started riding in the UK, and progressed to working in Belgium and Germany. She started the riding school at Redstone Farm in Richmond Hill and was an active organizer, volunteer and scribe at many dressage shows. She has been a Level 1 (3 star) coach as well as a Basic Dressage judge for many years. She presently runs a small private boarding stable in the Rockwood area and also teaches, conducts clinics and spends many hours judging up to the Gold level. Jenifer's current horse is showing at the Prix St. George level.
